

PODGORICA GASTRO*Guide*

Welcome to PODGORICA, the capital of Montenegro.

This city serves as the administrative, educational, cultural, and economic hub of the country. Enriched with abundant natural resources and cultural heritage, along with its prime geographic location, mild Mediterranean climate, and excellent transportation links to both the coast and mountainous regions, Podgorica is the optimal choice for your stay in Montenegro.

PODGO

Throughout the year, Podgorica pulsates with numerous international cultural, theatrical, cinematic, and sports events, making it an epicentre of activity.

Renowned for its exquisite gastronomy, a blend of national and Mediterranean cuisine, Podgorica offers a rich selection of wines and culinary delights. From traditional eateries serving homemade dishes to modern international restaurants, the capital of Montenegro is a culinary destination not to be missed.

PODGORICA GASTRONOMY

In Podgorica, visitors will embark on an authentic culinary journey through Montenegro's rich gastronomic traditions. The fusion of Mediterranean and Continental cuisine characterizes the diverse culinary landscape of the city. With abundant water resources, fish specialties dominate the menus, featuring marinated carp, eel on rice, dried sprats, and trout in sour milk. Local delicacies like rastan cabbage dishes with smoked meat further enrich the dining experience, alongside staples such as japraci, popeci, kačamak, cicvara, cheeses, and prosciutto. Discovering a favorite dining spot in Podgorica is a delightful adventure, with options to suit every occasion, mood, and palate.

Brimming with charming coffee shops and lively bars, it offers the quintessential Podgorica experience. Immerse yourself in the local culture by enjoying a leisurely cup of coffee or tea, and feel like a true Podgorica citizen.

Recently revitalized, Njegoševa Street is among the oldest and most picturesque avenues in Podgorica. Hosting a plethora of coffee shops, bars, restaurants, and even two hotels, it serves as a central hub for dining and hospitality. Crossed by Hercegovačka Street, this historic thoroughfare also offers excellent shopping opportunities, adding to its allure.

Located at the Business District in the modern quarter of the city , Sveti Petar Cetinjski Boulevard epitomizes contemporary elegance. Boasting a diverse array of restaurants, the bustling boulevard showcases a vibrant culinary scene tailored to every palate. Adjacent to this district the Roman Square lies, as well as the George Washington Boulevard and The Capital Plaza Centre, providing additional entertainment options.

Adjacent to The Big Shopping Centre, City Kvart is the newly developed Podgorica neighbourhood awaits exploration. This bustling area features numerous coffee shops, fast-food joints, pizzerias, and fine dining establishments, offering a diverse culinary landscape to satisfy any craving.

A testament to meticulous urban planning, Blok V showcases exemplary brutalist architecture. With cult charming cafes, this neighbourhood offers a plethora of attractions to explore. Start your day with a delightful cup of coffee amidst the scenic surroundings, and immerse yourself in the unique ambiance of Blok V.

WINE BARS

BUCCA WINE BAR

BUCCA WINE BAR

Bucca is a wine bar and restaurant, with a private dining room for parties of up to 10 people. Bucca has an inclusive and inspiring wine list that features many of the best regional wines as well as rare mature bottles from great estates around the world. Bucca's executive chef, Stefan Brnović, oversees an à la carte menu of fine International cuisine, as well as a range of small dishes and charcuterie to be enjoyed in the bar alongside ever-changing list of wines by the glass.

Bucca's menu changes daily to reflect what is most fresh in the season and at the markets. Expect wild-caught fish from that morning's catch, home-made pastas and sustainably-sourced meats. The dishes are flavourful, unfussy and classically-presented.
